

Welcome All New Girl Scout Leaders!

The Girl Scouts of Southeastern New England offers two Fall Product Sale Programs each year to help troops earn funds for their activities. These programs are the Be a Reader Magazine Subscription Sale and the Ashdon Farms Candy-n-Nut Sale. It's easy for girls to participate!

The 2015 Fall Product Sale theme is:

Girl Scouting encourages girls to stay connected to family, friends, community, and the world. Girls of all ages and in all pathways can participate in activities throughout the sale that help them to make decisions, exercise their people skills, and manage money so that they can reach their goals.

Girls can earn proceeds for troop activities and at the same time build self-confidence, learn strong values and how to work as a team when they participate in these programs. The sale of these products to family and friends also benefit the many services, programs and events that are offered by the council each year and also helps troops with start up funds for the year. Be sure to visit www.whatcanagirldo.com to check out activities for each age level that tie in with the Girl Scout Leadership program.

If you are interested in participating, or if you have any questions, contact the Product Sales Coordinator within your Service Unit, call the Council at (401) 331-4500 or visit www.gssne.org.
