Explore A World Of Possibilities

Get Inspired and Take Steps to Earn Girl Scout National Proficiency Badges at the Walt Disney World Resort.

Your quest to earn Girl Scout badges has taken you on many adventures. From exploring future career options as an artist, inventor, money manager, computer expert and more, to becoming a cookie sales master, learning all about nature and having fun along the way, your Girl Scout journey has been marked with accomplishments.

And now you have the chance to set off on an exciting new expedition - by completing steps towards Girl Scout badges and Journeys during your trip to the Walt Disney World Resort!

There are opportunities to complete badge and Journey steps at all four of the Walt Disney World Theme Parks. You can become an honorary bug at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park, go around the world—from China to Morocco and beyond—at Epcot, learn all about animation at Disney's Hollywood Studios Park or improve your dance skills while you "Move It, Shake It, Celebrate It" at Magic Kingdom Park—the choice is yours! But the possibilities don't stop there. No matter what you're passionate about, there are a variety of fun experiences that will provide you with unforgettable badge making memories.

Use this handbook to get inspired and see the options available to help you get one step closer to your badges. Each Theme Park is represented by a unique icon—these should serve as a visual guide to help you discover what opportunities are available around you.

So what are you waiting for? Shoot for the stars!

Special Thanks to the Girl Scouts of Citrus!

Lupe - Honest & Fair

- Become an apprentice sorcerer and set off on a quest to stop the Disney Villains from taking over the Magic Kingdom Park, as you play Sorcerers of the Magic Kingdom. Magic spells in the form of special cards will lead you to the Villains' hiding places. Share your cards with friends and take turns defeating the Villains to help save the park. 🧙

Sunny - Friendly & Helpful

- Take a moment to chat with a Disney Cast Member about their job at the Walt Disney World Resort. They will enjoy sharing some Disney magic with you! 🧙

Zinni - Considerate and Caring

- Create a souvenir Duffy the Disney Bear cut-out as you visit the Kidcot Fun Stops located throughout World Showcase in Epcot. Swap your Duffy with a fellow Girl Scout at different locations and take turns coloring and drawing to observe each person's creativity. Once you're done, share your Duffy with a friend. 🧙

Tula - Courageous and Strong

- Catch the fun-filled, dream-inspired musical stage show, Dream Along With Mickey at the Magic Kingdom Park. Observe how your favorite Disney Characters are courageous and strong. For instance, Peter Pan displays courage when he accepts Captain Hook's challenge. Donald Duck shows his strength when he stands up to Maleficent. 🧙
- Visit designated Character Greeting locations throughout the Theme Parks. Ask some of your favorite characters, like Mulan or Belle, about their own courage and strength. 🧙
- As you explore Disney's Animal Kingdom Park, take photos of animals that you think are courageous and create a photo collage of them. 🧙

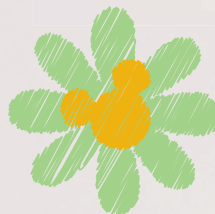

Mari - Responsible for What I Say and Do

- Visit Innoventions® West at Epcot to learn some important lessons in responsibility. 🧙
- Discover how to spend and save money wisely at The Great Piggy Bank Adventure™. 🧙
- Learn how to find and eliminate fire hazards in your home at Where's the Fire? 🧙

Legacy - Artist Painting

- The Art of Disney, located at Downtown Disney® Marketplace, features a large variety of styles and types of art by Disney artists. Browse the pieces of art at the store and take a moment to watch a Disney sketch artist at work.
- Go behind the scenes of animated Disney classics at The Magic of Disney Animation located at Disney's Hollywood Studios.
- Stop by Festival of the Masters, an open-air art festival held each fall at Downtown Disney Area. There you will discover one-of-a-kind paintings and meet award-winning artists. Visit disneyworld.com for dates and details.
- Many of the Walt Disney World Resort Hotels offer beautiful landscapes to inspire your own paintings. Capture the lush pine and cypress trees surrounding Disney's Fort Wilderness Resort & Campground, the koi ponds and thatched roofs of Disney's Polynesian Resort, or the New England seaside charm of Disney's Yacht & Beach Club Resorts. The larger-than-life iconic props at Disney's All-Star Resorts and Disney's Pop Century Resort are great subjects for still-life painting. Use your imagination to find inspiration for other painting subjects throughout the Theme Parks and Resort Hotels.
- Study the colors in the art you viewed throughout your Disney trip, as well as in nature and the architecture around you. Ask yourself how these colors make you feel. Try painting an object in a different color than what it normally is. For instance, paint Mickey Mouse's shorts blue or Belle's dress green. How do these changes in color affect your thoughts and feelings?
- Be on the look-out for inspiration from interesting leaves or seeds you might encounter throughout the Theme Parks and Resort Hotels and incorporate their beauty into your art. Remember, to leave these items behind for others to enjoy and take photos instead.
- As you walk through Cinderella Castle at Magic Kingdom Park, inspect the amazingly detailed mosaic mural—including tiles made of real 14-karat gold—and enjoy vignettes from the 1950 Disney animated classic, Cinderella. The mural contains one million pieces of glass in approximately 500 different colors. Think about ways other Disney stories could be expressed through paintings. Use this mural as inspiration to create your very own mural painting when you return home.
- Go behind the scenes of animated Disney classics at The Magic of Disney Animation attraction at Disney's Hollywood Studios and discover how your favorite characters come to life.
- Become an animator and learn how to draw a Disney character step by step at Animation Academy, located at DisneyQuest® Indoor Interactive Theme Park.

Legacy - Athlete Fair Play

- As you walk around World Showcase at Epcot, ask Cast Members about different games and sports in their home country. Compare and contrast these with your favorite games. How are the rules different? For added fun, try out some of these new games or make changes to ones you already know!
- Learn about teamwork firsthand by completing Sorcerers of the Magic Kingdom.
- Divide your group into teams of two and take turns designing your own rollercoaster at Sum of All Thrills™ in Innoventions at Epcot.
- Use the outdoor space at your Disney Resort Hotel to practice teamwork as you try out new team games.
- Play the Popcorn game while waiting for the bus or standing in line.
- Be a spectator at one of the games or competitions happening at the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex. Each week, dozens of teams compete at this state-of-the-art sports facility.
- Make up word games that you can play while waiting in line for attractions. Play games, such as "I, Spy," as you walk throughout the theme parks. In the outdoor space at your Disney Resort Hotel, play active games or hold relay races.
- Watch televised sporting events from across the country as you dine at ESPN Club at Disney's BoardWalk Resort.
- Take a trip to the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex and learn about what types of sports women play there. Ask female Cast Members what sports they enjoy playing.

Legacy - Citizen Celebrating Community

- World Showcase at Epcot features pavilions that represent the culture and cuisine of 11 different countries. While walking around World Showcase, pay attention to the flags and symbols that represent each country. Ask a Cast Member in one of the pavilions what symbols are special to them.
- KidCot Fun Stops are located at each country. Create a souvenir craft and learn about each country as you "travel around the world." On your adventure, talk about why symbols such as flags are so important.

- Think about how music contributes to your favorite Disney movie or attraction. How do the songs add to the experience? Think about songs that are special to you, your community and your country. Attend one of the Voices of Liberty performances in The American Adventure at Epcot to hear traditional American songs. Talk about what these songs mean and practice singing some of them yourself. 🎵
- Join in the fun as you watch Move It, Shake It, Celebrate It! Street Party at Magic Kingdom Park. 🎪
- Watch the Spirit of America Fire & Drum Corps in front of The American Adventure at Epcot and observe the spirited military formations. After the show, talk with the performers and ask them to demonstrate how to march. Use your new moves throughout the Theme Parks. 🎪
- World Showcase is full of landmarks. Look for landmarks in each country, such as the Eiffel Tower in France. Mark the landmarks that you find on an Epcot park map, and talk about the significance of each one. 🎪
- Watch the daily flag retreat ceremony at Magic Kingdom Park. Where else have you seen the American flag at the Disney Parks? (Hint: Be on the lookout as you enter) 🎪
- Mickey Mouse is one of the most recognizable symbols of any company in the world. What other iconic Disney Characters and symbols can you spot on your trip? 🐭

Legacy - Cook Snacks

- The Land at Epcot offers many great ways to learn about food, including Living with the Land, which explores the agricultural advances in the rain forest, desert and beyond. 🎪
- Get a more in-depth look at the greenhouses in Epcot during the Behind the Seeds tour. Watch how new methods are being developed to cultivate plants around the world and help make the Earth a healthier place to live. You will also learn how the produce grown at Epcot goes from the greenhouse to restaurants throughout the Theme Park. Look at the menus and talk about (and enjoy!) the healthy snacks that are offered. 🎪
- Discuss your favorite savory snacks and where you might find them in the Theme Parks. Explore savory foods from around the world and try something you have never had before at the Quick Service Dining locations around World Showcase. 🎪
- Explore even more dining options with a visit during the Epcot International Food and Wine Festival to sample foods from around the world! Visit disneyworld.com for dates and additional information. 🎪

Legacy - First Aid Brownie First Aid

- Guest safety is the #1 priority at the Walt Disney World Resort. What are some other safety features you notice in the Theme Parks and Resort Hotels? Where can you go for assistance and who should you talk to while you are here at the Walt Disney World Resort? Can you find these locations on your Theme Park maps? 🍩
- Ask a lifeguard at Disney's Typhoon Lagoon or Disney's Blizzard Beach Water Parks for some water park safety tips! Disney Security and First Aid Center Cast Members will also have some ideas for you to stay safe on your trip. What new tips did you learn? 🍩
- To prepare for your arrival at the Walt Disney World Resort, make a first aid kit to carry with you! What kind of things might you need? (Hint: you might want to include sun block, bandages, ointment and pain reliever.) Ask an adult for help when you prepare and use this kit. Visit a First Aid location in the Theme Parks and ask about what types of things they include in their first aid kits. 🍩
- Our First Aid Cast Members are prepared to treat many types of minor injuries. Ask them what steps they take to treat these issues. 🍩
- Whether in a Theme Park or at a Resort Hotel, much of your time at the Walt Disney World Resort will be spent outdoors, enjoying the weather and scenery. Before you arrive, research common outdoor injuries, their causes, and how to prevent or cure them. Once you are here, go on a hike or talk with a nature expert at Disney's Fort Wilderness Resort & Campground or Disney's Animal Kingdom Park to learn more about outdoor injuries and to put your knowledge into use! 🍩
- Visit the Fire Station on Main Street, U.S.A.® in the Magic Kingdom Park to see how it differs from your hometown fire station. 🍩

Legacy - Girl Scout Way Brownie Girl Scout Way

- While traveling to Walt Disney World Resort, learn new Girl Scout songs or practice some of your favorites! Attend the outdoor sing-along, offered every Friday and Saturday night at Disney's Fort Wilderness Resort & Campground, and sing classic campfire songs while connecting with other Guests. 🐾
- Be sure to listen for fun and interesting sounds in nature in the Theme Parks and Resort hotels, and find ways to incorporate these sounds in songs. 🐾
- You can celebrate a birthday here at the Walt Disney World Resort! If you have a birthday girl in your group, pick up a birthday button at your Resort Hotel or at Guest Relations in the Theme Parks. Make sure to wish other Guests with these buttons a Happy Birthday! 🐾
- Don't worry if it isn't your birthday! You can celebrate your UN-Birthday with a spin on the Mad Tea Party at the Magic Kingdom Park. 🍵
- Think about all the ways sisterhood and togetherness are represented at Disney through stories. Every Princess has a friend to help and inspire her! How can you show your sisterhood while on your trip to the Walt Disney World Resort? You can make a flag, t-shirt or bag to carry around on your vacation to represent your Girl Scout sisterhood. Or wear your Girl Scout uniform! 🐾
- Throughout the parks, you can carry out the Girl Scout Law by picking up after yourselves and leaving every area neat. Throw out out your garbage after meal time or make your bed in your room at your Resort Hotel. How do Disney Cast Members work to make the Theme Parks and the resort hotels ready for your visit? 🐾
- Traditions are one thing that make Girl Scouts so special! On your way to the Walt Disney World Resort, look through old handbooks and ask your leaders about Girl Scouts when they were younger. Learn about an old tradition, such as a song or story, or make a new one. Share this tradition with Cast Members and new Girl Scouts you meet. 🐾
- Bonus: Talk to Cast Members at World Showcase in Epcot and ask about if they know Girl Scouts in their respective countries. Ask questions about the traditions they follow. 🌍
- Walt Disney World Resort, like the Girl Scouts, has many traditions. All Cast Members begin their Disney career by taking a class called Traditions. Legacy - Naturalist Bugs

- To learn about bugs and other types of animals, head to Disney's Animal Kingdom Park. Conservation Station is a great place to learn about all types of bugs. Talk with a Cast Member about all of the interesting things you see. Carry a notepad and pencil to sketch any interesting bugs!
- Any time you are outdoors in the Theme Parks or Resort Hotels, be on the lookout for bugs. Get down on their level and check out the grass. Observe their behavior and discuss the reasons behind it. Visit during the Epcot International Flower and Garden Festival to see a variety of butterflies in a specially created garden. Check disneyworld.com for dates and details.
- Head to the trails at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park and observe bugs in their various habitats. Be sure to bring magnifying glasses to get a close-up look and notepads to capture your observations. Ask Cast Members questions about what you see. Discuss your findings with your troop. Do you have a favorite bug or did you find one you haven't seen before?
- Become an honorary bug in the Disney•Pixar 3-D attraction, It's Tough to be a Bug!® at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park. Check out the educational exhibits about insects after you exit the theater to learn more.
- Visit the Song of the Rainforest sound booths in Conservation Station at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park to hear various insect sounds.

It's Your World - Digital Arts Computer Expert

- Walt Disney World Resort is a great place to learn about computers and art. Disney animators use computers in the creation of several movies and television shows. Head over The Magic of Disney Animation at Disney's Hollywood Studios to learn how your favorite Disney characters are brought to life using technology. Become an animator and learn how to create a Disney character step by step at Animation Academy.
- Before you travel to the Walt Disney World Resort, get together with your troop and, with your leaders' assistance, use the Internet to plan out your trip. Look up maps, attractions and restaurants and plan where to stop along the way. Taking a digital journey before your arrival will help you get acquainted with the area and boost your excitement for the adventure to come! You can also order custom maps online at disneyworld.com to use during your trip or save as a souvenir.

- Bring your Elf Self along with you to Walt Disney World Resort! At Epcot, color and add details to your Elf Self as you move throughout the KidCot Fun Stops. Share your Elf Self with the other girls in your troop and talk about the unique traits that make you special and different.
- Head over to The Land Pavilion at Epcot! Set sail on Living with the Land to discover the latest developments in agriculture and learn how produce is being grown in new and unique ways.
- As a group, pick some new and healthy snacks to sample from the Sunshine Seasons food court at Epcot. Commit to choosing healthy food items and try drinking water or milk over sugary drinks. Take note of the exciting alternatives you can find throughout the Theme Parks and Resort Hotels.
- With your fellow troop members, think of common reasons why you might get an upset stomach. Use your new knowledge about healthy foods to pick what tummy-healthy snacks and meals to eat while you are on vacation.
- Carry a journal with you in the Theme Parks. Throughout the day, record in words and pictures (you can use the "feelings faces") how activities, sights and experiences make you feel. You can even take pictures! Did going on an attraction make you feel scared or excited? Did seeing a show make you feel happy or sad? Compare your notes with your notes from a journal from home and discuss how your feelings were similar and different on vacation and at home.
- Discuss how you will plan to eat in a healthy way and stay safe while at the Walt Disney World Resort. Take photos to document your trip (and maybe a yummy meal) and share with your troop!

It's Your World - Performance Dancer

- Exploring the Disney Theme Parks is a physical activity, so make sure to get warmed up before you go. When you meet each morning, elect one girl as the stretch leader and stretch as a group. Bend your body into letter shapes and spell out Disney-themed words for an extra-special warm-up. See if you can do "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious" from Mary Poppins. While you're at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park, observe the animals and use them as inspiration in your stretches.
- Dance is everywhere you look at the Walt Disney World Resort! Learn some classic moves during Move It! Shake It! Celebrate It! Street Party at Magic Kingdom Park or another parade in one of the Theme Parks.
- Attend a stage show, such as Festival of the Lion King at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park or Beauty and the Beast - Live on Stage at Disney's Hollywood Studios for some dance inspiration.
- Watch a performance of Finding Nemo - The Musical at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park. Observe how the performers dance and sing while operating puppets to tell the story.

It's Your World - Science & Technology Home Scientist

- Get inspired by visiting Innoventions® at Epcot and learn more about how science and technology impact our daily lives.
- Take a trip to Mission: SPACE® at Epcot and try out fun and unique flavors of astronaut ice cream from Germany, Italy and around the world.

It's Your World - Storytelling My Family Story

- Family is at the heart of every Disney story! Check out Finding Nemo - The Musical, Beauty and the Beast - Live on Stage and Festival of the Lion King to observe different kinds of families. Talk about the differences and similarities in each family and how each family is special. Then share stories of your own families!
- Families come to the Walt Disney World Resort from all over the world! Where is your family from? Ride "it's a small world"® at Magic Kingdom Park or go to World Showcase at Epcot and take note of the countries that your ancestors came from. What special traditions do you observe from these cultures? Speak with Cast Members throughout World Showcase about holidays and celebrations in their home country.

Bring a notebook to write down any interesting findings. To really put your sense of sight to the test, experience Sorcerers of the Magic Kingdom.
- Pick several spots throughout the Theme Parks to just stop and listen. Try to identify 10 different sounds wherever you may be, and compare those sounds to the sounds you hear in another location. You can also head to Conservation Station at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park to experience the Song of the Rainforest sound booths.
- Ride the attraction Soarin™ in Epcot and experience how your sense of smell can transport you to California.
- Visit Club Cool in Epcot to taste Coca-Cola products from around the world.
- Try the tie-dyed cheesecake at Disney's Pop Century Resort and see if it tastes differently than regular cheesecake. Share your observations and results with your troop!
- View and read a Braille map, located near the center of each Theme Park. Ask a Cast Member for the exact location.
- Visit Camp Minnie-Mickey at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park and complete the Conservation Activity Feel Boxes.
- Take a ride on Journey Into Imagination with Figment in Epcot to experience how your senses are influenced by your imagination!

It's Your Planet - Outdoors Hiker

- Walt Disney World Resort offers many perfect locations to go hiking. Check out the trails on the Theme Park and Resort Hotel maps, especially Disney's Animal Kingdom Park and Disney's Fort Wilderness Resort & Campground.
- Take a practice hike through one of the Theme Parks before you hit the trail. Pick an attraction and follow your park map and directional signs to find it. Trace your chosen hiking trail on your map to make it darker and talk about what Disney sites you may see while you're on your adventure.
- Before you leave for your trip, pack appropriate hiking gear, even if you only plan to "hike" in the Theme Parks. Make sure to bring sneakers, socks, a backpack and a water bottle. Once you arrive at your trail or Theme Park, talk about what types of gear you might need for a bigger hike.
- Bring an energy-filled snack, such as mixed nuts or granola, or plan to eat a healthy, light meal while you are on your Disney hiking experience!
- Use the signage along the trails at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park to identify the animals and plants you see as you are on your hike. Keep a journal and take photos of your favorites to share later with your troop!
- Go on Expedition Everest® at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park. While in the queue line, observe the pictures and artifacts to learn more about hiking and gain inspiration.

It's Your Planet - Practical Life Skills My Great Day

- Start your day at the Walt Disney World Resort off right. Set the alarm clock provided in your Resort Hotel room or request a magical wake-up call. Choose your clothes the night before so you are well-rested and ready for fun.
- Take advantage of the drawers and hangers provided in your Resort Hotel room. Unpack and hang up your clothes and find a place for your books and toys. Make sure things stay in their place and the room is neat. Keep your suitcase organized so it is easy to unpack when you get home.
- Create a calendar of activities for your trip and be sure to include a list of your 'must-see' attractions and shows. Visit disneyworld.com to see the latest show times, Theme Park hours and attraction information so you can plan your trip.
- For partial credit, choose a meeting spot to reconvene any time your group splits up. Make sure to leave this area, as well as any break or meal area, neat and better than the way you found it.
- Be sure to pick up a times guide at the front of each Theme Park for the most up-to-date show times and Theme Park hours. These guides also list the times and locations of Disney Character Meet and Greet locations.

It's Your Story - Adventure Letterboxer

- Complete the Sorcerers of the Magic Kingdom adventure or split into groups to make your own adventure with coded clues!
- As you walk around World Showcase in Epcot, collect stamps at each KidCot Fun Stop and gain inspiration for designing your very own stamp!

It's Your Story - Animals Pets

- Head to The Seas with Nemo and Friends at Epcot to view and even touch starfish and other small sea creatures. Discover the type of environment these creatures live in.
- At Conservation Station, learn about the veterinary care, research and food preparation that are part of the day-to-day activities at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park. You can view the veterinary examination rooms and may even get the chance to watch an animal get a check-up!
- Watch Cast Members feed manatees, dolphins and other sea creatures in The Seas with Nemo and Friends at Epcot and learn what and how much these types of animals eat. Check out the animal feeding schedules posted on the wall!
- Head to Affection Section at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park to get up-close with animals and learn about how to care for them. You can even brush the animals to help with their care.

It's Your Story - Creative Play Making Games

- Create your own Disney scavenger hunt by using Theme Park maps, located at the entrance to each park, as your inspiration. You can also find maps of each Theme Park on disneyworld.com. Be creative and theme your scavenger hunt to your favorite Disney character or movie.
- What games do you see at the Walt Disney World Resort? Create a game, such as a Disney version of "I Spy", to pass the time while you wait to ride an attraction or see a show.

It's Your Story - Innovation Inventor

- Use the paper included in your Brownie book or create another one with rows of plain circles. Carry this paper throughout the Theme Parks and be on the look-out for interesting and creative ways that circles are used in the park. Then, draw them on your own paper or find your own unique ways to use circles. Discuss the different ways the Walt Disney Imagineers have used circles to create "Hidden Mickeys" in the Theme Parks.

- Brainstorm different ways you could make music through the Theme Parks, whether it be tiptoeing, stomping, clapping, or whistling. Watch performers to see what creative ways they make music and sounds in the parades and shows.
- Visit Innoventions® at Epcot to see how scientists are using emerging technology to solve our everyday problems.
- See how inventors can be inspired by their senses and imaginations on Journey Into Imagination With Figment.

It's Your Story - Manners Making Friends

- As you travel through the Theme Parks, you will encounter many Cast Members and Guests. Start a conversation and introduce yourself to at least three new people. If a member of your troop is a little shy, help her out by introducing her and involving her in your conversation. (Hint: Walt Disney World Resort Cast Members wear a name tag with their name, so you will know how to get their attention and start the conversation!)
- Show friends and family back home that you are thinking of them by mailing them a postcard during your trip, or make them a Duffy craft souvenir at the KidCot Fun Stops at Epcot.
- Disney is the perfect place to share your favorite experiences with friends and to try new ones together! Take turns showing each other your favorite rides, shows, characters or restaurants. Then, use the Theme Park maps as your guide to select an activity that no one has tried, so you can all experience it together!
- Disney movies have lots of tales of friendship! Share your favorite Disney friend with your troop. Why was this character a good friend? Be sure to get your picture with your character on your trip, and maybe an autograph too!

Financial Literacy - Financial Literacy I Money Manager

- Experience The Great Piggy Bank Adventure™ at Epcot to learn about how to save and spend your money wisely. Share your experiences with your troop. Did you meet your goal at the end with your piggy?

Journey - It's Your Planet-Love It! Wow! Wonders of Water

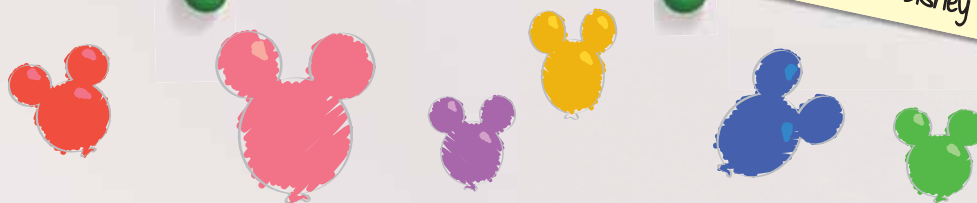

- Look for bodies of water throughout the Walt Disney World Resort. While you are in the Magic Kingdom Park area, you will find Seven Seas Lagoon and Bay Lake. Once you enter the Magic Kingdom Park, look for Cinderella's Fountain and her Wishing Well in Fantasyland®. Visit water-inspired rides, such as Splash Mountain® or Pirates of the Caribbean®. Travel deep into the jungles of the world on the classic Jungle Cruise® or set off on the happiest cruise that ever sailed - "it's a small world"®.

- Learn more about water – one of our most vital natural resources – by visiting The Seas with Nemo & Friends or Living with the Land at Epcot.
- Take a ride on Maelstrom in Norway at Epcot. This stormy voyage travels through a Norwegian fjord, a troll-infested swamp and on to the North Sea via a thrilling backward plummet.
- While you are at Epcot, visit the tea shop in United Kingdom, as well as Snow White's well in the Germany Pavilion.
- Take a splash on Kali River Rapids® at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park, while observing effects that logging can have on the water and the environment.
- On opening day of Disneyland® Park, Walt Disney had to make a difficult decision between how he wanted to use water in the parks - operate the bathrooms or the drinking fountains. He chose the bathrooms. Discuss this story. Would you have chosen differently?
- Visit Disney's Blizzard Beach and Disney's Typhoon Lagoon Water Parks where you can enjoy a fun-filled day with water and friends as you cool off under the hot Florida sun. Swim, snorkel or learn to surf with your fellow Girl Scouts.
- Look at waterways used for transportation around the Walt Disney World Resort. Boats are a popular way to travel between and throughout the Theme Parks and Resort Hotels. You can find boats in many locations, including World Showcase at Epcot, between Disney's Hollywood Studios, Disney's Yacht & Beach Club Resorts, Disney's BoardWalk Resort, Transportation and Ticket Center and the Magic Kingdom Park.

Journey - It's Your Story-Tell It! A World of Girls

- At Magic Kingdom Park, meet Princess Tiana at Liberty Square® or find many other Disney Princesses at Town Square Theater.
- As you walk through Cinderella Castle, take a look at the murals depicting Cinderella's story.
- Ride "it's a small world"® and observe the girl dolls representing cultures from around the world.
- Take off on Peter Pan's Flight® and keep a look out for Wendy and Tiger Lily to see how they influence Peter Pan's story.
- Head over to Mad Tea Party in Fantasyland®, where you might have the opportunity to meet Alice, a girl just like you!

Legacy - Artist Drawing

- Go behind the scenes of animated Disney Classics at The Magic of Disney Animation at Disney's Hollywood Studios.
- Visit the Animation Academy at DisneyQuest® Indoor Interactive Theme Park and draw your very own Disney character.
- Meet characters from your favorite Disney animated films at meet and greet locations throughout the Theme Parks.
- Walk through the Animation Gallery merchandise location at Disney's Hollywood Studios.
- Learn about perspective drawing by checking out the Streets of America at Disney's Hollywood Studios. Use what you see and learn to make your very own perspective drawing of the Theme Parks. Try drawing the same object from several different perspectives.
- The Walt Disney World Resort is home to many unique works of art, such as Cinderella Castle at Magic Kingdom Park and The Tree of Life at Disney's Animal Kingdom Park.
- Visit The Art of Disney at Downtown Disney® Marketplace to view masterpieces and learn about how to display your own works of art once you return home.

Legacy - Athlete Practice with Purpose

- It takes a lot of endurance to keep your body moving. Watch Move It! Shake It! Celebrate It! Street Party at Magic Kingdom Park and dance along for the entire parade.
- Try building up your endurance in the pool at your Resort Hotel by swimming laps as a troop.
- The Walt Disney World Resort is home to many marathons, competitions and sporting events. These events take place year-round at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex and throughout the Theme Parks. Visit disneysports.com for more information on upcoming events you can view and maybe even participate in.

Legacy - Citizen Inside Government

- Get a global view as you walk around World Showcase at Epcot. Each pavilion offers shops, attractions and restaurants that represent the culture and cuisine of these 11 countries. Cast Members at each pavilion act as ambassadors from their respective countries. Have a conversation with some of them about what it is like to live in the United States versus their home country.
- Visit The Hall of Presidents at the Magic Kingdom Park to learn more about our government and hear inspirational words from our country's leaders.
- Head to The American Adventure at Epcot for a stirring exploration of America's past. Observe the powerful ways we can shape the future of our country.

- Try out healthy new foods by sampling flatbreads or international cuisine around World Showcase at Epcot. Get ideas for what to cook when you return home – don't forget to ask your parents for help! You can also get some additional options during the Epcot International Food and Wine Festival. Visit disneyworld.com for event dates and details.
- Expand your palette by trying one new food each day. Challenge your troop to see who can build the healthiest meals and snacks at the Walt Disney World Resort. Ask to chat with a Disney Chef when you are dining at a Disney restaurant.

Legacy - First Aid Junior First Aid

- Just like in your own home town, the Walt Disney World Resort has security, first aid and other services ready to help Guests at all times. Talk with a First Aid or Security Cast Member to learn more about handling emergencies and the importance of calling 911.
- To prepare for your arrival at the Walt Disney World Resort, make a first aid kit to carry with you. What kind of things might you need? (Hint: you might want to include sun block, bandages, ointment and pain reliever.) Ask an adult for help in preparing and using this kit. Pack it in your backpack and you are ready for a day in the Theme Parks!
- Hopefully, you are healthy and well during your trip at the Walt Disney World Resort! Talk with your troop about minor illnesses that could occur, such as a sore throat or upset stomach, and how to avoid and treat them. Where will you go for help while you are here at the Walt Disney World Resort? Can you find these locations on your Theme Park maps?
- Ask a Disney Lifeguard at Disney's Typhoon Lagoon or Disney's Blizzard Beach Water Park for some water park safety tips! Disney Security and First Aid Center Cast Members will also have some ideas for you to stay safe on your trip. What new tips did you learn that you can take home to your community?

Legacy - Girl Scout Way Junior Girl Scout Way

- Adding appropriate music to an event or occasion is a way to make things extra special. How does the music in the parades, shows and rides add to the experience? Pick some of the Girl Scout songs you know to sing during your trip. Attend the Chip 'N Dale sing-along or watch the Voices of Liberty at The American Adventure to give you inspiration to pick the perfect music for your Girl Scout events.
- It's always time for celebrations at the Walt Disney World Resort. Celebrate being a Girl Scout by making a difference in the parks, whether it is by picking up a piece of garbage or helping someone find where they are going. Share your good deeds with others and explain why such actions are at the heart of Girl Scouts.

If you are celebrating something, be sure to pick-up a celebration button from Guest Relations in the Theme Parks or from the Front Desk at your Resort Hotel. Make sure to wish other Guests wearing buttons a congratulations on their celebration!
- And don't worry if it isn't your birthday, you can celebrate your UN-Birthday with a spin on the Mad Tea Party at Magic Kingdom Park.
- Share your traditions with other Girl Scouts you meet at the Walt Disney World Resort. Sing some of your favorite Girl Scout songs and talk about your favorite aspects of Girl Scouting.
- Walt Disney World Resort, like the Girl Scouts, has many traditions. All Cast Members begin their Disney career by taking a class called Traditions. This first day orientation connects new Cast Members to our Company's past, present and future. Ask a Cast Member about the history of The Walt Disney Company.

Legacy - Naturalist Flowers

- Flowers are used to create excitement and add an element of design to the Theme Parks and Resort Hotels! From Mickey Mouse's head at the front of the Magic Kingdom Park, to the hanging orchids as you enter Disney's Animal Kingdom Park, flowers can be seen throughout the Walt Disney World Resort. Check out how Disney's Horticulturists have used a variety of arrangements to create a rainbow of colors through all of the Theme Parks and Resort Hotels.
- Take time to smell the flowers as you walk from Future World near Journey Into Imagination With Figment toward World Showcase Lagoon. All of the roses are labeled so you can identify them and share your favorite with your troop.
- Visit Living with the Land at Epcot to see how flowering plants go from the greenhouse to the restaurants throughout Epcot. As you journey through the greenhouses, you will see flowering fruits that you can eat at Sunshine Seasons, just outside the attraction.
- The Epcot International Flower and Garden Festival gives you a chance to see even more amazing flowers and themed topiaries. There are also seminars and demonstrations to attend hosted by gardening experts. Visit disneyworld.com for event dates and details.

It's Your World - Science & Technology Entertainment Technology

- Head to the Animation Academy at Disney's Hollywood Studios for an expert lesson on how to draw Disney characters. Try making a flip book or thaumatrope with your new animating skills!
- Experience the latest in video game technology at the Videogame Playground, located at Innoventions® West in Epcot. Compete against your favorite sports teams, challenge a villain to a duel or embark on a one-of-a-kind adventure with some of your favorite Disney Characters. Become a part of the action, as you and up to 3 friends record your image, which is then placed in the video game you play.
- Roller coasters aren't just fun—they're also educational! At DisneyQuest® Indoor Interactive Theme Park, put on your engineer hat and use your knowledge of motions and physics to digitally design a rollercoaster. Then go inside a simulator and ride your creation.
- When you visit Epcot, ask a Cast Member about the differences between the Green and Orange versions of Mission: SPACE®. Ride both versions and experience the difference for yourself. Why is the Orange version more intense?
- Learn about blue screen technology at the end of Space Mountain® at Magic Kingdom Park. As you exit the ride, you get the opportunity to play in front of a green screen and see yourself projected in space.
- Experience the Haunted Mansion® at the Magic Kingdom Park to see if you can identify where the Pepper's Ghost illusion was used to create some spooky magic.
